

Parclose Profiles

Parclose profiles are designed to hold and secure infill materials such as glass or panels within aluminum framing systems. Commonly used in curtain walls, balustrades, and partitions, they ensure a clean finish and structural stability. Lightweight and corrosion-resistant, parclose profiles offer both functional support and aesthetic refinement across a variety of architectural and interior applications.

TEK 730

TEK 731

TEK 732

TEK 734

TEK 735